

Dean of Students Office – Partnering with Faculty & Staff to Help Students Succeed

Maureen Armstrong, Associate Dean of Students

Dean of Students Office

- Consultation
- Referrals
- Support
- Processes

Consultation

- Individual students, advisors, faculty
- Processes (Readmission, Residency, Cancellations)
- Financial concerns

Referrals

- We are an office that is interested in connecting with students
- Faculty, staff, parents are often the source of referral
 - Class absences
 - Financial struggles
 - Health issues
 - Questions about processes we manage
 - Victim support

Referrals

- Email – dos@uconn.edu
 - include the students full name
 - id number
 - brief description of concern
- Phone call – 860-486-3426
- Walk-in referral
 - Stop by the office with the student and we will try to see them on the spot
- Students may be seen by appointment or walk-in
- Walk-in hours are Monday – Friday from 1:00pm-4:00pm

Support

- STELF Loans
 - Short Term Emergency Loans
 - Interest free
 - Disbursed through fee bill
- Students First Fund
 - Provide financial support to students facing unforeseen circumstances
 - DOS staff make referrals
- Help students navigate the University systems
- Manage University Protocols (Bias, Student Death & Severe Injury, Support of Undocumented Students)

Victim Support Services & Bystander Programs

- Assistant Dean for Victim Support Services
 - Provides direct outreach to students identified as a victim
 - Offers students University resources
 - Reach out to faculty in advocacy capacity
- Protect Our Pack
 - Educational and training programs to highlight approaches to becoming an engaged and active bystander
 - All new students participate in Orientation session
 - Pack Leaders are students trained to give workshops to students organizations, classes, etc.

Processes

- Separation from UConn
 - Cancellation
 - Withdrawal
 - Leave of Absence
- Readmission
 - Host application
 - Communicate
- Final Exam Rescheduling
 - Bunched Exams
 - Exceptions
- In-State Tuition

Dean of Students Office

- Located in Wilbur Cross room 203
- Available to see students for any reason related to life at UConn
- Walk-in hours Monday – Friday, 1:00pm-4:00pm

Questions